新田祐克所描繪的
全新戀愛傳說
第三章!!

他說我是、十分美麗的人。
像是對待無比重要的東西一般、愛撫著我。
被你重視之後
我才第一次想到要重視自己。
無限溫柔的那個夜晚。正在離我遠去——。

My mission is to grasp Sumagaseki massage parlor's customer information
Counting from the past I've done this for 2 years
Currently all customers are of the Bureausracy and are all of high ranking agents
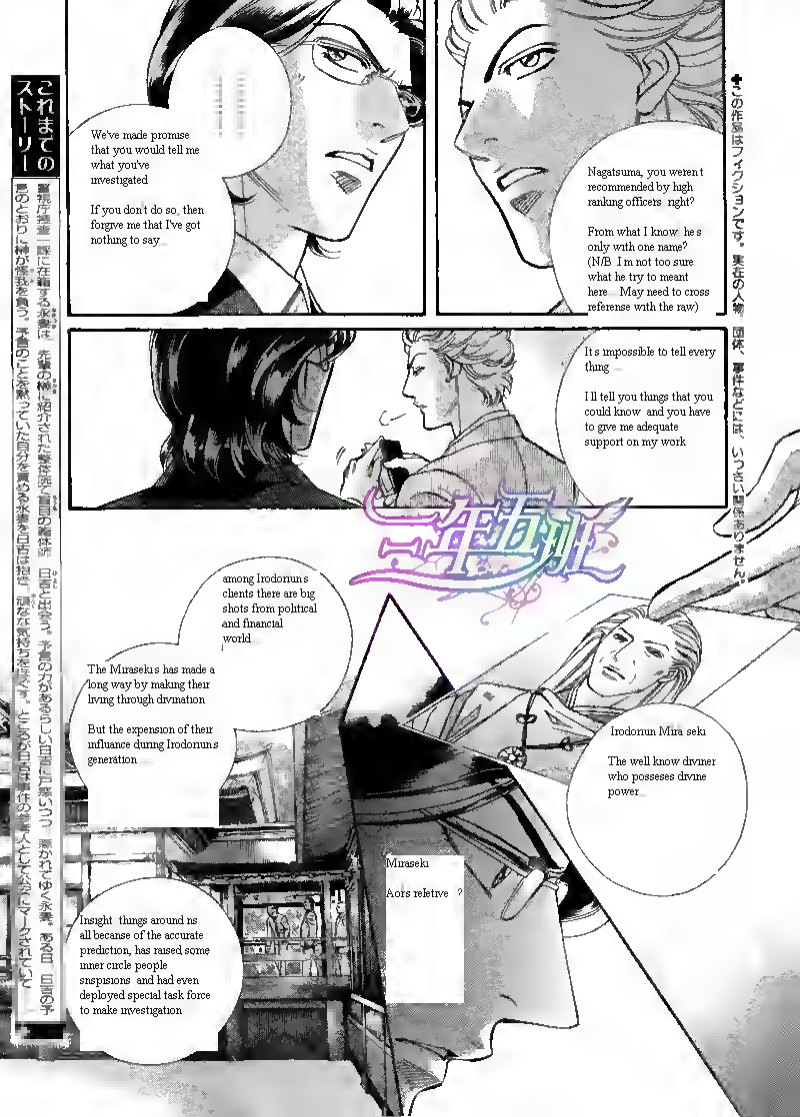
They seems really careful even though is through recommendation, but customers will still be on hold until investigation on their back ground is done then only reply will be given to them



これまでのストーリー
We've made promise that you would tell me what you've investigated
If you don't do so, then forgive me that I've got nothing to say Nagatsuma, you weren t recommended by high ranking officers right?
From what I know he s only with one name? (N/B I m not too sure what he try to meant here May need to cross reference with the raw)
It s impossible to tell every thing
I ll tell you things that you could know and you have to give me adequate support on my work among Irodonuns clients there are big shots from political and financial world
The Miraseku s has made a long way by making their living through divination
But the expension of their influance during Irodonuns generation
Irodonun Mira seku
The well know diviner who posseses divine power
Miraseku
Aors reletive ?
Insight things around ns all becanse of the accurate prediction, has raised some inner circle people snspisions and had even deployed special task force to make investigation might that be Aor is using his own power ?

That place was build by the funding from Murasaki
It is alright if it is to get more clients
the problem is information acquired from there would flow back to the group Suddenly these few year, one kind of profession has increased among their clients..... officials ?
that's right
It wouldn't be Aor would never do those things but it's just divination I don't think that our department should waste two years investigation something this minor
Those that escaped death would praise the accuracy of her divination
However little do they know that the perpetrators were also Irodoun's clients as well
There are a lot of people excaped danger through Irodoun's divination once a person was saved, he will blindlessly believe every thing their saviour told them
Humans are such creature

That s all I can tell you _ lets get into the real thing?
Though I would like to get information from you But seems like you don t know anything Hope that you help me with first hand information
Those that unrealised on this were exploit by others _
Such people are increasing in the country's central system
Don t you think this is scary?
Tap wire?
this is illegal
Don t underestimate the police?
We are different from Division unit 1 who only act after things had happened we have to take the initiative to start things

It will be great if there is nothing I could be free from this job as well
Just take it as a prove of innocent for your lover
What an honest man I was just trying you for a bit
Some how it's helpless that he is a beauty?
Just the wrong gender
Then, the valne of the picture increase

From sakaki
